Sir,

With reference to your Memo No.3801/Edn.9-15-98 of the 3rd February 1916, forwarding for disposal and report of the action taken, the petition of one T.C.Thangavelu Pillay, -- Proprietor of the Mahadeva Industrial School in the Bangalore City, praying that a certain house be rented out for locating his school, I have the honor to state that the house referred to by the applicant is one of the properties given by one Kempananjappa(deceased) as a gift to the Nagareswaraswami Temple in the Nagarthapet of the Bangalore City. As the house was in a dilapidated and uninhabitable condition, one Ramanuja Ghar came forward to repair it, and recoup the cost ~~the cost~~ of such repairs by deduction from the monthly rent of Rs.6/- which he was willing to pay and the proposal was sanctioned in this office. The repairs have cost Rs.77-15-2 and the house is now in his occupation. The Amildar has been directed to issue an endorsement to the petitioner accordingly.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
